OFFERS IN THE REGION OF £340,000

Known for many years as The Queen of the Borders, and situated at the confluence of the Rivers Slitrig and Teviot, Hawick is the largest of the Border towns. Frequent winners of national floral awards, and famous world-wide for its quality knitwear, Hawick is part of The Cashmere Trail and is the major centre for the industry in the Borders. There is a large range of major supermarkets in Sainsburys and Morrisons, a very recently re-built Lidl, an Aldi in construction, and a large Iceland and Farmfoods. A Homebase and Argos are also beneficial to the town, along with a large leisure centre facility for families and kids alike, with many other sports facilities throughout the town. Hawick boasts the award winning Wilton Lodge Park which lies on the River Teviot, and is currently enjoying a £3 million pound regeneration, which includes a new cafeteria and footbridge, together with a new external 3G sports pitch and tennis courts. The park extends to some 107 acres, with many walks, recreational facilities, walled garden, Hawick Museum and Scott Gallery. The town is also famous for rugby, and boasts many fine golf courses throughout the area. For dining out, Hawick has a wide range of options, including French, Italian, Chinese and Indian eateries, with the Mansfield House Hotel, and Mansfield Park providing space for bigger functions and weddings. Many traditional events are held in the town during the year, including the annual Common Riding and Reivers Festival, which draws in many tourists from outside the area. Another attraction is the new multi million pound distillery which has just been completed.

CAVERS

Cavers is a parish in the Scottish Borders area of Scotland, in the former county of Roxburghshire, south and east of Hawick. The largest village in the parish is Denholm. Surrounded by beautiful countryside, Cavers is popular for trails, walkers and equestrian activities.
